

Humane Society of San Bernardino Valley Education Center Usage Policy and Procedures

Date Approved by Board: May 24, 2006

Revised: August 2014

General: The Joyce Martin Education Center is available for use by service clubs, professional associations, corporate groups, children's groups such as boy and girl scouts, and for those involved in animal welfare.

Procedures:

- A rental application should be submitted a minimum of ten [10] business days prior to the desired date. Application must be completed and signed by the renter. The Humane Society reserves the right to cancel rental of the room in case of emergency and any fees paid will be refunded.
- User may be required to provide proof of insurance and name HSSBV as "additional insured" on policy for each day the auditorium is rented.
- All fees and deposits must be paid in advance, unless prior agreement has been reached and approved by the Humane Society of San Bernardino Valley. The auditorium cannot be placed on hold or reserved unless a non-refundable cleaning deposit of $50.00 has been submitted.
- The date and time for use of the room will be coordinated with the Humane Society during our normal hours of operation, or on weekends as approved.
- Humane Society of San Bernardino Valley sponsored groups and functions may be allowed to utilize the room free of charge.

▪ Renter's Fees:
